

Join the D.C. Peace Team for

Advanced Peace Team Training

Sat. April 12, 2014

Great Room A in Pryzbyla Center at Catholic University 9 a.m.—5 p.m.

Join the D.C. Peace Team as they welcome Meta Peace Team from Detroit, MI for a day-long workshop that invites you to learn violence de-escalation skills. 1) Explore the theoretical and spiritual basis of nonviolence (interconnectedness of all humans and the earth). 2) Learn about and practice advanced skills for nonviolent peacemaking. 3) Learn how to work in a TEAM and by CONSENSUS. 4) Practice using affinity teams in the field, group facilitation, the CLARA intervention method, and more. 5) Discuss opportunities to use Nonviolent Third Party Intervention (TPNI) in your everyday life, and with DCPT locally. This workshop is free and open to the public- (no previous training required): Pre-registration is required. RSVP to Eli McCarthy at 510-717-8867 or email esm52@georgetown.edu. Metro: Red Line— stop at Catholic U./Brookland. Childcare coordinator: Tarek at maassive@gmail.com.

To learn more about the work of Meta Peace Team, go to www.MetaPeaceTeam.org

DC Peace Team: Working towards cultivating & sustaining a culture of nonviolent peacemaking.
www.dcpeaceteam.com; Facebook: DC Peace Team; Twitter: @DCPeaceTeam